

TEAVIGO®

Manufacturing Principle

Green tea leaves (Camellia sinensis) are extracted with water followed by an extraction with ethyl acetate. The extract is concentrated and spray-dried to yield the green tea extract in powder form.

TEAVIGO® is produced by adsorption chromatography of the green tea extract. The eluate is concentrated, crystallized, dried and filled into containers.